LIMA, Peru (AP)—The prefect of Ancash Department telephoned today that 300 persons had been killed and 250 injured in the Conchucos area in earthquakes which started Sunday.

The Ministry of the Interior said it had established that 50 had been killed in the mining town of Alto Bueno and that three died at Santiago de Chuco.

More than 60 persons were killed in Sihuas, a town of 11,540 which was almost completely destroyed; 30 more perished at Pomabamba and several more were reported dead at Mollepatá, a town of about 2,800 said to have been about half destroyed.

Other hard-hit cities included Mollembamba, 3,400 population, still out of communication with the outside world, and Pampas.

Dr. K. A. Wright of the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory in Saanich reported that the seismograph registered an earthquake Tuesday morning at 9. He said the exact location of the quake had not been determined.

2 Canadians Among 11 Missing Aboard California Plane

BURBANK, Calif. (AP)—A Western Airlines plane, with eight passengers and a crew of three aboard, was missing today—apparently in the snowswept mountains north of here.

The twin-engine Douglas DC-3, inbound to the terminal here from Salt Lake City, was last reported at 2:24 a.m., C.S.T., when the pilot informed the control tower by radio that he was bringing the craft down for a landing. He was over Newhall, on the upper fringe of the San Fernando Valley, at 9,000 feet.

A Western Airlines spokesman said at 6:45 a.m.—announcing the craft was missing—that it had enough gasoline to remain aloft until 7 a.m.

Western Airlines' spokesman identified the pilot as Capt. Gerald Miller, the co-pilot as Ted Mathis and the stewardess as Joan Fauntleroy.

Two of the passengers were later identified as Canadians, Miss Mary La Branch, Edmonton, and Mrs. Bridges W. Knight, Julian Road, Banff, Alta. Both had boarded the plane at Great Falls, Mont.

A heavy storm has been raging over southern California for two days, but during the night had abated sufficiently for planes to resume using the busy Lockheed air terminal here.

Cabinet Of France To Resign After Legislature Meets

PARIS (AP)—The French cabinet decided today to resign formally after the newly-elected Legislature, in which Communist members form the largest single party, is organized after Nov. 28.

The Interior Ministry said returns of last Sunday's election for the National Assembly showed this party line-up:

Communists, 186; Mouvement Republicain Populaire 163; Socialists, 104; Rightist groups 82; Radical Socialists, 63; Independents, 5; undecided, 15.

The cabinet decision to resign raised the question of whether Georges Bidault, President, Premier and Foreign Minister, would be asked, and agree, to continue in office until January, when the Parliament is to be fully constituted. The alternative is for the president of the National Assembly to name someone else to form a transitory cabinet.

The French must vote again Nov. 24 for the second house of the new Parliament, the Council of the Republic. Voters of continental France will choose 200 of the 315 members through a system of selecting electors on a municipal and cantonal basis. The National Assembly will pick 50 additional members, with the seats divided according to strength in the assembly. Another 14 will be chosen in North Africa and 51 others in other parts of the French empire.

Some South Pacific Islands Look Like Junk Yards

On Majuro Island in the Marshall group is this picture of junked war material, typical of that to be seen on many islands in the Central and South Pacific. The U.S. navy has not sufficient personnel to do anything with it and the tropical climate is rapidly depreciating it beyond salvage. Some vehicles have been stripped to obtain essential parts necessary to keep others rolling.

Thousands of unused surplus tires lie rotting where they have lain for more than a year, deteriorating in the sun, rain and salt spray of Okinawa, Japan, now too weather-beaten for use. They are part of the $5,000,000,000 worth of Pacific island equipment which the U.S. government recently handed over to China as part payment of the "Yuan Debt."

Jewish Extremists Ambush British Patrol; 6 Killed

JERUSALEM (AP)—Attackers described by police as Jewish extremists today ambushed a police patrol, which daily combs railway lines for bombs, blasting its ramshackle hand-propelled trolley and killing all six officers aboard.

The "suicide patrol," instituted two weeks ago when Irgun Zvai Leumi said it was launching an anti-railway drive was ambushed at Beit Safara on the outskirts of Jerusalem. The patrol had been appearing daily at the same spot, a few minutes after starting its track inspection tour from Jerusalem yards.

Killed were two British constables, one Arab sergeant and three Arab police officers.

Britain Continues Precautions

LONDON (CP)—An informed source said today that security precautions against threatened violence in Britain by Palestine underground organizations would be continued indefinitely, despite the fact that Tuesday's Royal opening of Parliament passed without incident.

The flow of rumors and speculation concerning any violence by the Jewish underground extremists subsided somewhat during the night, but there were unconfirmed rumors a member of the so-called Stern Gang had been arrested at Liverpool and that the Daily Mail in London had been warned its building might be blown up.

Sir Harold Scott, Metropolitan Police commissioner, issued a call for 6,000 volunteers for part-time service with his forces, badly depleted during the war, to grapple with an increase in the number of crimes as well as increased security duties.

A Scotland Yard spokesman denied a report published by one newspaper that an agent of the United States Federal Bureau of Investigation was here to work with the Yard on the theory that sympathizers with the Jewish extremist movement might come from the United States.

MOVES CAMOUFLAGED
PARIS (Reuters)—Samuel Merin, political spokesman of Irgun Zvai Leumi, the Jewish terrorist organization, claimed here today that Britain's precautions against the arrival of Irgun or Stern gang forces were "futile."

"These men will carry the war into Britain," he said. If they want to enter Britain they will do so in a way in which the chances of their being caught will be reduced to zero."

1 Dead, At Least 16 Hurt As School Boiler Explodes

BARODA, Mich. (AP)—One child was killed and at least 16 others injured today when a boiler explosion wrecked a section of a consolidated school in this little western Michigan fruit belt community.

Walter Ruppel, 13, died in a St. Joseph, Mich., hospital less than three hours after the blast had ripped off one wall and the roof of the two-story building.

An estimated 260 pupils were in the building when the explosion occurred, but the school superintendent said all had been accounted for "as far as we can ascertain."

Twelve of the students were taken to hospital with serious injuries, including crushed and fractured arms and legs, but none was reported in critical condition.

The explosion occurred while one of the victims, 16-year-old Eldon Nitz, was firing the basement boiler shortly before noon during the absence of the school janitor, his uncle, on a hunting trip.

The west wall of the two-story building was destroyed and the roof caved in on the seventh grade classroom where the victims were seated.

U.S. Economists Do Not Believe Prices To Zoom

WASHINGTON (AP)—While the collapse of the O.P.A.'s price barriers will boost living costs a few percentage points, government economists insisted today it also will:

1. Delay any business recession, and

2. Help President Truman balance the federal budget.

Despite widespread reports of surging prices, these economists predicted the general cost of living level will not climb more than 5 per cent, and probably not that much, before stabilizing.

That compares with a 12.8 per cent rise between VJ-Day and mid-September—before the O.P.A.'s decontrol movement went into high gear—and a 44.7 per cent rise since this country went to war.

The 5 per cent guess, made by one O.P.A. economist, was considered too high by some other government experts interviewed today. The average price of goods sold over the counter might go up that much, they said, but if rents and such services as laundry, cleaning and repairs hold reasonably steady, the average cost of housing, clothing and feeding a family won't jump that far.

However small the comfort may be to consumers who yesterday saw some soap go up 3 cents for a small cake, the bigger flow of dollars going into the businessman's till will increase the government's tax revenue.

Pacific Maritime Strike Nears End; Deadlock Broken

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Breaking of a deadlock over a critical union security issue for C.I.O. marine engineers brought the U.S. Pacific coast's 42-day-old maritime strike within reach of settlement today, with federal mediator P. Feinsinger declaring an early end to the tie-up, but negotiations for both employers and the three unions had cleared one of the largest stumbling blocks to maritime peace in the Pacific. All parties to the dispute were scheduled to meet again today.

The compromise, arrived at Tuesday, provides that the employers will agree not to engage in anti-union activities nor attempts to interfere with the internal affairs of the union, which is the Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association.

British representative Arthur G. Bottomley told the General Assembly's 5th power trustee ship committee that "there is no obligation under the charter to bring any territory under the trusteeship system."

Mr. Bottomley, while not mentioning Palestine specifically, said "it is quite clear that a mandatory power is free to place a mandated territory under the trusteeship system, or not to do so."

Provincial Government Approves $33,000,000 B.C.E.R. Refunding

Refunding of $33,000,000 worth of B.C. Electric Railway Co. Ltd. bonds was approved today by the provincial government.

The total to be refunded includes $25,000,000 worth of B.C. Power Corporation collateral trust bonds and $7,000,000 worth of Vancouver Power sterling bonds.

The new issue will be 20-year first mortgage collateral bonds, yielding 3.25 per cent. The issue is to be released through a Canadian syndicate headed by Nesbitt, Thomson, Wood, Gundy & Co., and Societe de Placements.

"The effect of this refunding will be to strengthen the company's position in financing its postwar program," said A. E. "Dai" Grauer, B.C. Electric president.

"It will mean a saving of $225,000 yearly to the company in interest charges on the existing bonded debt. At the same time

South Africa May Defy U.N. Over Mandate

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y. (AP)—Field Marshal Smuts, Prime Minister of South Africa, told the United Nations today he is prepared to take over mandated Southwest Africa by unilateral action if the General Assembly refuses to approve his proposal for its annexation.

Challenging Russia's assertion that the U.N. charter compels the placing of all former League of Nations mandates under the proposed trusteeship system, the 76-year-old South African leader declared:

"If the Assembly does not view favorably the Southwest African request for incorporation, then South Africa has no other alternative but to continue to administer the territory as an integral part of the Union of South Africa."

He spoke as the trusteeship battle flared again, with a British declaration disputing Russia's contention that Palestine and all other League mandates must be placed under U.N. trusteeship.

NO OBLIGATION

British representative Arthur G. Bottomley told the General Assembly's 5th power trustee ship committee that "there is no obligation under the charter to bring any territory under the trusteeship system."

Mr. Bottomley, while not mentioning Palestine specifically, said "it is quite clear that a mandatory power is free to place a mandated territory under the trusteeship system, or not to do so."

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Army vehicles bucked huge snowdrifts today to get food to hundreds of families and thousands of head of livestock as Red Cross headquarters was set up to relieve the suffering caused by southeastern Colorado's worst blizzard in years.

Planes were ready to fly hay to snowbound cattle and sheep which could not be reached by army "weasels," trucks and bulldozers that plowed into drifts, some of them 10 to 18 feet high.

The weather bureau reported a foot-deep blanket of snow over most of the area four days after snow stopped falling in the week-long blizzard which has claimed 15 lives.

The Red Cross established headquarters at Colorado Springs to co-ordinate relief activities.

A seven-plane reconnaissance mission from Colorado Springs discovered many families in need of food and fuel in the Edison district 50 miles southeast of there. Sighting a distress signal—an X traced in the snow—a plane landed and learned of the district's plight.

Five army transport planes flew hay to a herd of 10,000 cattle reported "frozen in their tracks" in three feet of snow in Lincoln County. Another cargo plane dropped hay to starving antelope.

Warnings Along California Coast

LOS ANGELES (AP)—One death and numerous injuries were blamed today on the season's first big storm, as heavy snows marooned scores on mountain roads, floodwaters closed highways and bridges and in some lowland areas threatened to lap into houses.

After a few hours' light sprinkling during the night, the rain resumed with force today and the weather bureau ordered storm warnings continued along the Pacific from San Diego to Point Conception, north of Santa Barbara, predicting southeast winds "occasionally reaching 50 to 60 miles per hour."

Traffic was blocked on heavily traveled Laurel Canyon Drive by a giant oak tree which toppled across it. Police and sheriff's officers tried unsuccessfully to untangle a snarl on the route, between Hollywood and the San Fernando valley, and called on street crews to saw up the giant. Many film stars have homes in the canyon.

Snow continued to fall in the mountains.

The normally-dry Los Angeles

River flowed over two bridges near its mouth at Long Beach. There the spreading Hamilton Bowl, a floodwater sink, overflowed and blocked the coast highway leading to San Diego.

North of Long Beach, in the farming communities of Norwalk, Hynes and Clearwater, muddy waters rose to within a few inches of some homes during the night, but appeared to be dropping early today. Acres of pasture land were under water and many garages flooded.

Mountain snowfall ranged up to 26 inches at Big Pine. A party of motorists was marooned on rim of the world highway, above San Bernardino, between the resorts of Lake Arrowhead and Big Bear Valley.

Along the coast, at least four cabin cruisers were torn from their moorings by high seas and cast ashore.

The rainfall slackened off after midnight, and flood control engineers said the millions of dollars spent on such projects as the Arroyo Seco Spillway apparently had prevented any repetition of disastrous floods of past decades.

Family Influx To B.C. Increasing

Influx of 385 more families with children to British Columbia is indicated by figures for last month released today by the Family Allowance Branch of the Department of National Health and Welfare.

During October there were 683 families, drawing children's allowance, transferred into the province as against 298 moving out to other provinces.

A total of 112,003 family allowance cheques were issued in B.C. with payments aggregating $1,291,142 to 213,750 children under 16 as against 111,124 cheques for 213,093 children the previous month.

Family movements indicated by statistics on family allowance showed that there were 14 families transferred from Nova Scotia to B.C. as against four leaving for that province, one in from New Brunswick as against four out, 48 from Quebec and four to, 83 from Ontario and 59 out, 134 from Manitoba, and 27 to that province, 197 from Saskatchewan and 58 out, 159 from Alberta and 133 out, and two families from the Northwest Territories as against nine leaving B.C.

Priests In Revolt Burn Taoist Abbot

FEIPING (AP) — Chinese police reported today that 36 priests in the famous Taoist Temple Pailumkuan (White Cloud) revolted Tuesday and burned to death the temple's abbot and its Taoist layman on a huge bonfire.

Police related this story: The priests accused the two men of violating Taoist regulations. They smashed into the men's living quarters and dragged them to the temple gate.

The priests beat the two men with clubs, trussed them with the ropes, flung them on a pile of firewood, doused them with gasoline and set fire to the bier.

Twenty-seven of the priests surrendered and the other nine were turned over to police. Police said the priests related this story:

The priests cremated the abbot and layman because of a decade-old dispute over temple property.

Some told the police upon surrendering "we have chosen to perish together." None attempted to elude arrest.

SPICY OLD FASHIONED POT ROAST—Try this recipe not only with beef, but with veal or pork.

Sprinkle a 3-pound beef rump or chuck pot roast with 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves, salt and pepper. Dredge in flour. Brown in melted drippings in a heavy kettle with tight-fitting cover. Tie 1 teaspoon mixed pickling spices in cheesecloth and drop into the kettle. Pour 1 cup cooked or canned tomatoes and 1/2 cup water over roast. Cover and simmer slowly until meat is tender 2 1/2 to 3 hours. If necessary, add extra water as meat cooks. Remove pickling spices. Serve meat with the spicy sauce as gravy. Serves 6 to 8.

BRAISING STEAKS—This method is used for less tender cuts of steak, such as round steak. Long, slow, moist heat is required to tenderize them and to bring out their delicious flavour. To braise the steak, heat enough suet or fat in a heavy frying pan to cover the bottom of the pan and brown the steak slowly on both sides. Then add just enough water or moisture to cover the bottom of the pan; reduce heat and simmer until tender, about an hour, depending more or less on the thickness and tenderness of the steak.

1,050 Jews Held At Cyprus To Be Sent To Palestine

LONDON (CP) — The British Colonial Office announced Tuesday 1,050 uncertified Jewish immigrants now detained on Cyprus would be granted permission to enter Palestine between Nov. 15 and Jan. 14.

In the same period 1,950 other 'immigration certificates' will be issued to Jews in German displaced persons' camps, to illegal immigrants serving with the British armed forces and to relatives of Palestinians already promised entry facilities, said the announcement, released simultaneously in London and Jerusalem. The 3,000 immigration certificates to be issued represent the normal quota for a two-month period, but release of certain Cyprus detainees will be the first British step taken to liquidate the pool of illegal immigrants shipped to the Mediterranean island since camps were established in August.

A Colonial Office spokesman said there are between 5,000 and 6,000 illegal immigrants in Cyprus camps at present.

Wallace Challenges Republican Party

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Secretary of Commerce Henry Wallace asserted Tuesday "I lay down the challenge of battle to the Republican Party utterly and completely."

Speaking at a luncheon in his honor tendered by the New Republic magazine of which he was recently appointed editor, Wallace followed up his challenge with the comment that he had "very little respect for the abilities of 95 per cent of the Republicans in the House and Senate to act wisely."

"The Republican Reactionaries are all set to repeat their mistakes of the 20's" and that "reaction will sweep the country until unemployment sets in."

Appointed a member of the King's Privy Council in 1922, he served as a member of Parliament for Southampton from 1906 to 1922, was treasurer of His Majesty's Household for 10 years and was Vice-Chamberlain from 1917 to 1922.

Baby Dies In Crib

ST. BONIFACE, Man. (CP) — Doctors, police and firemen worked for more than an hour Tuesday in an unsuccessful attempt to revive two-month-old Gordon Smith, found suffocated in his crib. The baby was found dead by his father, Joseph Smith, who noticed him lying on his face and a thin trickle of blood from a nostril.

Joint City Police Force Proposed For Twin Alberni Cities

PORT ALBERNI — A joint aldermanic committee is investigating the possibility of instituting a combined Municipal Police Force for the twin cities of Alberni and Port Alberni as a means of reducing expenditures for police protection.

A committee was appointed to study the problem after it was revealed at a joint meeting of the two councils that Alberni was paying $1,800 per annum to Provincial Police for police protection while Port Alberni was paying over $9,000.

Aldermen of both municipalities were of the opinion that expenses for police protection could be reduced if a police force was established to serve the two cities.

NEW YORK (AP) — Prices on some scarce products, led by soaps and non-ferrous metals, jumped out from under the now-obscured Office of Price Administration ceilings in the United States Tuesday with advances ranging from 10 to about 50 per cent.

While many manufacturers and dealers are holding to the old price lines on literally hundreds of items, others have wavered or announced increases.

Most soap manufacturers said wholesale prices on their products would be increased by 50 per cent.

The prices of lead, copper and zinc spurted upward almost simultaneously. The Kennecott Copper Company, the leading United States producer, reported a boost of 3½ cents to 17½ cents a pound.

SORTING THINGS OUT

HIS UNDERSTANDING OF THE REquirements of the situation obviously obliged Mr. Truman to assure the people of the United States in general and the Republican victors in last week's election in particular that he intended to put the nation's interest a long way ahead of political expediency. And in the first flush of triumph it was equally natural that the party which had been in the arid wastes of opposition for so long should sound a magnanimous note and pitch its hopes for 1948 in a minor key for the time being.

It is nevertheless appreciated by the Republican Party that by gaining control of the Congress it has inherited a large measure of responsibility. The electors will expect G.O.P. legislators to abandon opposition
for opposition's sake and put aside generalities; for the election results clearly indicated that the voters are asking for a different type of leadership from that which they have been getting. Whether they have chosen wisely or not is their business. Observers on the outside, however, know that the era of Franklin D. Roosevelt, which brought the Democrats unprecedented power and prestige, is at an end. The strong personality that held an assortment of mutually hostile political groups together under one leadership is gone. But because there is a Democratic President and a Republican Congress it does not follow that a running battle of vetoes and overriding votes between the White House and the legislative body is inevitable. Nothing, of course, could be less desirable. And such a spectacle might well have external as well as domestic repercussions.

Outside observers, especially in the light
of history, will be pardoned if they wonder whether the victorious party at the polls on Nov. 5 will be able or willing to keep American foreign policy on the tracks laid down by the original bi-partisan committee which came into being on the initiative of Mr.
Roosevelt and Mr. Cordell Hull—with the wholehearted support and assistance of Republican Senator Arthur Vandenberg. We are thinking particularly of the economic potentialities of the new alignment on Capitol Hill. Several of those who will be prominent in the reorganization of both Houses of Congress, for instance, were bitter opponents of Bretton Woods, the Reciprocal Trade Pacts, and the British loan—to mention some of the legislation which encountered hostility from a combination of Democrats and Republicans. In other words, it remains to be seen whether the present
bi-partisan concept of the national needs in the external political field will remain so in the international economic realm. In this aspect of the new orientation in Washington
Canada is vitally interested.

STILL UP IN THE AIR

PROBABLY TOMORROW THE INTER-municipal committee will meet to discuss the subject of amalgamation. Alderman Gadsden reports that nothing has been done
by the municipalities in the way of presents an analysis of their debts, tax structure, and anticipated major expenditures for examination and consideration. In other words, no understandable information is available on which the terms of a referendum
might be drawn up and submitted to the respective electorates of the four municipalities—which means that the issue still remains on the shelf.

One of these days, of course, a body of young and energetic taxpayers whose business interests are centred in the Greater Victoria area will take the bit in their teeth
and demand and get action on this matter.
We have preached the proposal of amalgamation in these columns for years, and our morning contemporary has done the same,
but unless public effort soon manifests itself,
joint action on a common front by this district's population of 100,000 will be out of the question. And senior governing bodies, especially if asked for financial assistance,
will tell us to quit wasting money on four sets of municipal machinery when one should be able to do the job.

LISBON BOWS TO MOSCOW

WHAT IS BEHIND THE BOUQUET which Portugal's Premier tossed to the Kremlin during the week-end? Like a bolt from the blue, Dr. Antonio Oliveira Salazar denounces democracy, calls it a failure, and praises Russia's achievements in war and peace.

Dr. Salazar has never made any secret of his belief in dictatorship as the only effective form of government. As Prime Minister, Minister of War and Foreign Af-airs, he has controlled the National Assembly—a comparatively simple matter
since it was elected in 1934 and re-elected in 1938 on lines similar to those obtaining under the late and unlamented Adolf Hitler.
Only the lists presented by the National Union, an association legally recognized but without the character of a party, may be voted for. In other words, this is the party

obligated to defend the principles contained in the constitution—approved in 1933, and providing for an authoritarian republic on a corporative basis.

How Dr. Salazar's effusion will go down at the Vatican is highly speculative. While there is still freedom of worship in Portugal, of course, the country is predominantly Roman Catholic. Similar conditions obtain in Spain. And it was none other than Generalissimo Francisco Franco who announced to the world at large only a year or so ago
that totalitarianism of the Mussolini-Hitler
pattern was the one sensible system of government; the paunchy little Spanish braggart also had no use for democracy—not that he had had any experience with it. But he sent his "blue division" to fight against the Soviet Union.

The United Nations, therefore, have before them the spectacle of a couple of dictators in the Iberian Peninsula dead set against democracy—one bowing to Moscow
and the other all dressed up with only the memory of his two idols to which to cling.

RESTORING DANUBE TRADE

REPORTS OF CORRESPONDENTS WHO traveled through postwar Europe have lent continual emphasis to the hardships imposed upon various countries through lack of transportation media by which available goods could be moved to localities in great need. Bombing attacks during the conflict tore up the rail lines and destroyed
the seizure of hundreds of Danube River boats which, in ordinary times, handled a vast amount of the trade between countries
linked by this broad artery.

Positive action to revive the flow of water-borne goods over this great river is good business. Yet the significance of Gen.
Joseph T. McNarney's announcement that the United States is turning back to their owners approximately 600 of these vessels
does not rest entirely on the immediate value the boats will represent as carriers.
The action will be seen, too, as evidence of a practical approach to the problem of restoring the economic well-being of Bulgaria, Hungary, Romania, Yugoslavia and Czechoslavia, countries within the Slavic group,
and will provide a more optimistic outlook
for the re-establishment of harmonious relations between those peoples and the western democracies.

The status of the Danube still must be determined and ideological conflicts may be expected before a final decision is reached in that respect. But with the harvest completed and winter setting in, this move on the part of the United States to assist distribution of commodities—both from the countries through which the river flows and from richer nations across the sea—gives promise of reducing the toll which cold and hunger would exact among those to whom supplies could not be sent in adequate quantities while transport was woefully deficient.

SELF-DISCIPLINE NOW

PROBABLY WITH AN EYE ON THE
self-imposed austerity living of Britain
as she labors toward a vastly increased export market, the Saturday Evening Post analyses current trends in the United States.
Under the heading "We can't keep foreign markets by ignoring the customer," the magazine quotes a leading American newspaper as saying: "Foreign inquiries show increases, but manufacturers are unable to take care of them because of the pressure of domestic demands."

The statement is followed by remarks of export-trade managers who point to the paucity of provision made for sales to outside nations and the insistence on "protecting" the home market. It continues:

"The newspaper statement and the exporters'
comments may be multiplied a thousand-fold or more. Certainly we want to do our best to supply the local market, but dependability of supply is an important element in world-trade continuity and development. If we are to be
'in and outers' in world trade rather than regulars, we shall pay a penalty when the days of normalcy are once again with us and we seek outlets beyond our borders for our tremendous commodity potential—a potential probably far greater than our own limited population can absorb. Isn't the present a good time for us to profit from past experiences, and therefore the time to promote a permanent world trade?"

This suggestion from the Post—a reminder of the advantages to be secured
from "getting their fustest with the moose"
and "bestest"—might be accepted to advantage by Canada. The plain fact of the matter is that the producer nation which lays down
its goods in the lands which are now starved
for many commodities is in on the ground floor. And in the last two decades this country has been an "in and outer" with her bacon sales to Great Britain.

NOT EASILY FOOLED

NOTHING HAPPENED TO MAR THE progress of the King and Queen as they followed the traditional custom associated with the opening of a new session of Parliament in historic Westminster yesterday.
Scotland Yard was on the job in force. But the Jewish terrorist organization has issued a bombastic announcement today implying that the war "on the heart of Britain" has not yet begun. It predicts that its emissaries will fool the authorities by entering the United Kingdom "in such a way that no one will recognize them as being engaged in operations against Britain."

Apart from the fact that such organizations are doing the cause of the Jewish people grievous harm, these hot-headed individuals had better not count on fooling Scotland Yard. The members of this body of resourceful men may be having a difficult time in dealing with an unprecedented wave
of crime—a not unexpected sequel to war's confusion—but its watchwords are patience and perseverance. Its record is the envy of criminological experts.

ON BI-PARTISANSHIP

IN THE UNITED STATES we might ask ourselves when it is that a bi-partisan conduct of foreign affairs is necessary and workable. The answer, I think, is: when almost every one agrees that the country needs a united foreign policy though it is not yet settled just what the policy ought to be. For whenever it is necessary to work out a bi-partisan arrangement, it is a sure sign that new decisions are in the making.
Bi-partisanship is an arrangement by public-spirited men for dealing with those critical periods when a policy is forming but is not yet formed.

If and when a policy is fully formed and proved, it ceases to be bi-partisan and becomes national.

For more than a century, for example,
no one has thought of the Monroe Doctrine as depending on bi-partisan agreement. The essential principle of the Monroe Doctrine—that the Western Hemisphere is closed to imperial expansion and to intervention by non-American powers—has been so well settled that either party, any President, would uphold it and would have the united
support of the people when he did uphold it.
It has been, in this sense, more than bipartisan; it has been national.

BUT IT TOOK ABOUT 30 years for the country to reach this point of settled agreement. During the first years of the republic, when Europe and the world were engaged in the Napoleonic wars, the country was dangerously divided on party lines, and became twice involved—first on one side
and then on the other of that world war.
The infant republic had not yet found its own line of vital interest and policy. Only about eight years after the end of that world war did an American policy emerge. It was established as a result of bi-partisan consultation and agreement in Monroe's administration, and it was so well conceived that in its essentials it was the foreign policy of all Americans for the remainder of the century.

Since 1914, and indeed since the Spanish War of 1898, the country has again been in the throes of forming a new foreign policy.
Only parts of it are, even now, well settled
—for example that the United States has vital interests in the whole region of the Pacific. The Presidential election of 1900 was fought hotly with this as a leading issue.

MANY YEARS PASSED before there was such sufficient agreement about the Pacific and the Far East that Franklin D.
Roosevelt, a Democrat, could defend at the risk of war with Japan the interest in China
and the far Pacific which was first declared,
against tremendous internal opposition here
at home, by Theodore Roosevelt and John Hay and Elihu Root. Even at the end of the First World War our Far Eastern policy was still so unsettled that Mr. Hughes, when he was Secretary of State, had to operate through a bi-partisan arrangement with the Democratic leaders of the Senate.

We are now in the process of forming an American national policy for Europe and the Middle East. It is agreed by almost everyone now that the United States is vitality interested. But no one, literally no one, is quite clear and certain what our interest is and how it is to be implemented.
A bi-partisan arrangement will be necessary
until a settlement in Europe is reached which permits us to have a settled policy in relation to Europe. That will surely take a good many years.

policy have, however, reached the point where our position no longer depends on a bi-partisan arrangement and has become the national position. I do not think we are counting our chickens before they are hatched if we say that full and active participation in the United Nations is now a settled national policy. We can say also, I think, that the determination is fixed to play
a leading part in the settlement of the war;
the country will not withdraw from the settlement as it did in 1920.

But the part it will play in the settlement is still experimental, unclarified and indeterminate. There is no use pretending that the excellent working arrangement represented by Secretary Byrnes and Senator Vandenberg is operating on a clear and well-considered conception of how the world war should be settled. This is something to be worked for. It is not something which has already been achieved.

THE EVENTUAL FORM OF American policy towards Europe and Asia will depend in very large measure on whether there can be a political settlement in the world while the Republican party adjusts itself to the fact that in the conduct of internal affairs 1947 is not and can not be 1920.

For we face the fact that we have to make a world settlement while the Republicans, who are rising to power, are profoundly uncertain as to what the modern age requires of them.

GOVERNMENT MINISTERS

Louis St. Laurent and Paul
Martin, Progressive Conservative
Leader John Bracken, and C.C.F.
Leader M. J. Coldwell are showing a degree of teamwork at the U.N. Assembly here which promises to lift Canadian foreign policy
out of the arena of domestic party politics.

For instance:
The original draft of Committee
Chairmen on the delegation placed Progressive Conservative Leader John Bracken at the head of the Social Committee. But down at San Francisco, which
Mr. Bracken did not attend, C.C.F. Leader Coldwell had been on the Social Committee, had worked hard on it, had made contacts with delegates from other countries, and had developed a great interest in the broad subject. Realizing this, Mr. Bracken offered to exchange committees with the C.C.F. Leader, and the offer was gratefully accepted.

THIS INCIDENT is typical of the spirit of co-operation in the tri-party Canadian delegation has worked since the Assembly opened.

It is important to realize that the grounds for the representation of the three major political parties at Flushing are definitely different from San Francisco.
When that latter gathering was being held, a general election
was pending in the Dominion.
Theoretically, any one of the three parties might have faced
the responsibility of government
in a matter of a very few weeks.
This was the basis of the tri-
party nature of the delegation
decided upon by Prime Minister
King at that time.

No such situation exists in connection with the Assembly at Flushing. But the importance of providing for the element of continuity in Canadian foreign policy is realized. In the United Kingdom and, to a lesser extent

in the United States, such continuity is contributed by the seasoned experience of the permanent foreign service. In Canada this branch was organized only in 1912
and only really commenced to expand in the nineteen-thirties. This prevents it from influencing policy to the extent which is the case with the British or the American permanent services.

THIS WAS the background
which induced the government to include representatives of the major Opposition parties on the delegation to Flushing and Lake Success. The idea was that by having all three political parties present, all collaborating in the day-to-day determination of the Canadian attitude, a policy might emerge which, in its main pattern, would be continuous, regardless of what political party
might be in power.

Observers here at Flushing believe that the experiment is working out and promising well.

STREET LIGHTING

I see by the notice in the press
that we are not to be granted
free light, also a considerable number of complaints on the poorly lighted streets in the City and Greater Victoria.

Having lived in the Kootenays
for the past twenty years, I have seen how well the City of Nelson,
B.C., is lighted by free porch
lights supplied by the City of Nelson.

I feel it would be a step in the right direction if the B.C. Electric Company could be influenced to adopt the same lighting system as Nelson, to the benefit of all.
C. V. GODWIN.

COMMISSIONING A SHIP

In these days when there are items in the newspapers about the commissioning and paying off of ships of His Majesty's Royal Canadian Navy, a brief review of the origins of these and other similar terms will be of interest.

In the days of sail when a captain was posted to a ship, it was generally a hulk and he came on board and his flag being hoisted on a small flagstaff he read his commission to whatever men were present, and then started an officer or petty officer to recruit
men on shore, and start to equip
his ship.

In these days a ship is already supplied with guns, masts and boats, also a crew is drafted from the Depot, so that the captain can read his commission in front of a complete crew in the ship. The long white pendant with a red cross near the mast is also hoisted and kept flying all during the commission, day and night.
At the end of a long commission
the signalmen gather scraps of white bunting and make a very long pendant, with a bladder on the end to keep it afloat on the sea. This is called a paying-off pendant. At the end of a commission she is said to be "Paid off," not, as the very new term
would have it, "de-commissioned."
The captain can be said to "Pay off his ship."

When a ship is placed in Reserve, a skeleton crew is kept in the ship in charge of an officer,

generally an Engineer.

"In" is used of a ship in the same sense as a regiment. A seaman or soldier, even when on leave or furlough, would say that he was "in" the Uganda or "in"
the P.P.C.L.I., though not at the time "On board" his ship or
"with" his regiment.

F. V. LONGSTAFF.

TO ABOLISH WAR

The men and women of Canada
have not been made aware of the fact that it is now possible to abolish war. We need not pause to determine why this is so. The fact is that the people have not been told the biggest of all news.
We now know how to abolish war.

Peace is a product of Government. War between nations will disappear with the establishment of an International Government over the nations. One way in which this can be accomplished
is by an amendment to the Charter of the United Nations which will turn the Assembly (at present
a debating and recommending body) into a Parliament with legislative authority over the armaments and the armed forces
of the constituent nations.

People in other countries in impressive numbers are joining together to work for this reform.
There can be no higher task. Let every man and woman in Canada
who is able to do so join this world-wide crusade to abolish war in our generation. Literature will be sent to all interested persons on request.

President, World Government Association, Room 322, 73 Adelaide West, Toronto.

HE LIKES VICTORIA

It is just three years since I ended a 2½-year sojourn at Patricia Bay, and as Christmas once again approaches, I felt I would like to send very sincere greetings
through the medium of your paper to all my friends there.

Here's one laddie who will never forget that wonderful reception we received in July, 1941,
when the first load of R.A.F.
types saw the "V" sign flashing
from the pier at Victoria. Also,

how that hospitality, instead of slackening, strengthened into such a bond that when we embarked for home in October, 1943,
it was as big a wrench to leave,
as if we had been leaving home.

I know, myself, there was a very empty feeling in my tummy
as the Princess Joan steamed slowly away and Victoria was lost to view.
How many times since I have wished that a little less distance than 7,000 miles separated us, but at least, if I may, I would once again like to say "thanks a million to everyone; especially Mrs.
Richardson (Mum) Mrs. Corbett (Linkleas, Oak Bay), Mr. and Mrs. Holland and Thelma, Mr.
and Mrs. Dore, Halfway, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, 2650 Graham Street
not forgetting Hazel), the staff of the Elks Club who treated us
as their own and oh!—and all the many, many other myriad folk who made our stay a pleasure.

Happy Christmas and all the good things in the world for 1947.

INVESTIGATING THE PRESS
From the Edmonton Bulletin
The British House of Commons,
by a vote of 270 to 157, has resolved to set up a royal commission to investigate the finance,
control, management and ownership of British newspapers.

This measure is aimed, of course, at the English chain newspapers which undoubtedly have acquired tremendous power, not only through vast circulations,
but through an amassing of colossal wealth.

To those, however, who realize that a free and unfettered press
is the basis of democratic principles, there is something a bit sinister in this eagerness on the part of the ruling party to pry
into the affairs of opposition newspapers.

SCHOOL FOR PARENTS

From the Ottawa Citizen
Young parents, all too conscious of their lack of experience
in the complex duty of bringing up a family, have hitherto proceeded to gather it mainly by the crude process of trial and error.
That need no longer be so, at least in Ottawa. Starting tomorrow a course of 12 lectures on the subject will be given at Carleton College continuing each alternate Thursday.

Arranged in co-operation with the Ottawa Nursery School Association, parent—both father and mother are encouraged to attend
together—will learn of the growth and development of their child from babyhood up in relation to its own home environment, and to other children as well as adults. Specialists in child study will explain how play and individual expression can be developed through music and painting and movement.

The range of idea and method
governing child-life and family relations has greatly expanded of recent years. Parents with their tremendous responsibilities for the citizens of the future, should be the first to learn what they can do about it.

IMMIGRATION

From the Winnipeg Free Press.
The decision of the Canadian government to admit to this country 6,000 persons from the refugee camps of Europe and 4,000 Polish ex-soldiers is worthy of commendation but it is no more than a gesture towards meeting the problem of displaced persons who are said to number between 800,000 and 1,000,000.

If Premier King and President Truman discussed immigration at their recent meeting it was undoubtedly this problem they had under consideration for the action
to be taken by both countries
should run along parallel lines.
But, in fact, accepting refugees
is only one part of whatever immigration policy Canada evolves,
for aside from the necessity of finding for those unfortunate a place to live, this Dominion has a need for immigrants on its own account.

Welfare Chief Lauds B.C. Program

Dr. R. E. G. Davis, executive director of the Canadian Welfare Council, addressing a meeting of members of the local welfare council and Community Chest in Prince Robert House Tuesday afternoon. At right, E. F. Winslow, past president of the Community Welfare Council, and J. Denis Hagar, chairman of the Community Chest here.

In terms of a comprehensive program of social services, B.C. is in the front rank, if not the lead of Canadian provinces, according to Dr. R. E. G. Davis, executive director of the Canadian Welfare Council, who this afternoon left for Ottawa.

B.C. legislation on welfare has been re-written to conform with the most modern thinking. Welfare personnel in this province are of good quality and the quality is continuing to improve, according to Dr. Davis.

The welfare services in B.C. cover a large part of the needs, he said. "I am not saying they cover them all, but they cover a large part."

Most important of all, the doctor continued, is that B.C. has been able to co-ordinate the various fields of welfare work and now has a well-integrated system which provides a co-ordination between the province and municipalities, which is working well.

He also praised the work of private agencies. They, similarly, are doing a good job, according to Dr. Davis. In Victoria, progress has been made in the co-ordination of these agencies, and he is satisfied they will continue to form an indispensable part of any total scheme.

Private social agencies have played a fine role in pioneer programs and methods of social work, according to Dr. Davis, who believes there will be, even with the broadest measure of social services under public auspices, a great field of work for voluntary organizations.

Nominated For Vancouver Mayor, McGeer Warns Gamblers To Get Out

VANCOUVER (CP)—Senator G. G. McGeer, accepting a nomination for the post of Vancouver's mayor which he held in 1935-36, Monday night predicted a campaign for city taxes on the land other governments hold and warned city racketeers to "get out of town."

Accepting the unanimous nomination on the Civic Non-Partisan Association for the mayoralty in the December election the former iron moulder-barrister who became a senator only last year, warned racketeers and gamblers:

"You'd better be on your way. I'm coming. You've had your little day and its over. And there is no use waiting until I get there (in the mayor's chair), because I'll be that much tougher when I do."

He was critical of the federal and provincial governments for having "19,000,000 worth of property here on which they pay no taxes after taking all our revenues." Asking for "the kind of majority they are going to hear across the Straits of Georgia in Victoria," he said:

"I'll be knocking at (Premier) John Hart's door... and I'll also be knocking at (Finance Minister) Isley's door to get better terms, and a new deal for Canadian cities."

Former Alderman Halford D. Wilson has also indicated he will run for mayor in the Dec. 11 election. However, when his name was submitted at the C.N.P.A. meeting it was ruled out because the organization had word he would not accept the nomination. It was believed Mr. Wilson might run independently.

SENATOR G. G. McGEER

Nominated under the C.N.P.A. banner for alderman were Aldermen Charles Thompson and George Miller, Sam Cromie, J. D. Cornett for two-year terms, and Alex Fisher for a one-year term to fill the post of the late Alderman H. L. Corey.

Nominated for park board posts were Arthur Harper, Charles Van Norman, R. Rowe Holland and Everett Irwin, and for the school Board Trustees Tom Brooks and James Sinclair, Jack Henderson, Mrs. Jessie Hallis and Mrs. Pearl Steen.

President Reports On Kiwanis Club 1946 Activities

Activities of the Kiwanis Club and its committees for 1946 were reported on by retiring president of the club, J. Denis Hagar, at a luncheon meeting held in the Empress Hotel Tuesday.

Mr. Hagar noted attendance for the year was down to 75 1/2 per cent as compared to 82 per cent in 1945, 81 per cent in 1944 and 75 per cent in 1943. However, he felt the loss in attendance was largely due to the fact 1946 was the first year of peace since the war and that many business men had been inclined to take holidays to make up for those lost during the war.

Membership dropped from 129 in 1945 to 122 this year.

Under the projects committee, the club campaigned and raised $46,000 to cover the Royal Jubilee Hospital deficit on the new maternity wing.

The boys' work committee had experienced its most active year, Mr. Hagar said. There were now 30 boys as compared to last year's 18. The directors had approved the use of $900 for the boys' work, Mr. Hagar noted.

The T.B. project committee had wound up this year, turning the balance of its funds over to the provincial government, which will now look after the work. The T.B. building, built by the club in 1944 at a cost of $10,000, was turned over to the Royal Jubilee Hospital.

C. H. G. Mann, secretary-treasurer, reported the club was now in a strong financial position with total assets of $4,550.

Munro, MacGillivray To Ottawa Meeting

Dr. J. B. Munro, deputy minister, William MacGillivray, director of the Dominion Provincial Emergency Farm Labor Service, and possibly Agriculture Minister Frank Putnam will represent British Columbia at the meeting in Ottawa Dec. 3 and 4 of Dominion and provincial agricultural officers at which 1947 farm production will be discussed.

Following the meeting of the production committees, Mr. MacGillivray will meet with Ottawa officials of the Dominion Provincial Emergency Farm Labor Service to discuss British Columbia's agricultural manpower needs during next year.

Also scheduled to be discussed in the east by British Columbia Agricultural Department officials with the Wartime Prices and Trade Board are questions of ceiling prices on prize beef, purchased at cattle shows and fairs. At present it can be retailed only at prices in line with the standard beef price ceilings set by the board.

Canadian Nationalism Must Be Fed Massey Tells Women

Canada has a true national consciousness, Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey told members of the Women's Canadian Club, who filled every chair, sat on window
ledges and stood against walls
in the Crystal Ballroom at the Empress Hotel, Tuesday afternoon.

He said this reservoir of national feeling must be kept filled
from the deep wells of tradition
"which means among other things keeping in touch with the country from which so many of our ideas have come"; from new ideas "whatever their source";
through Canadian accomplishments and through telling the world about Canada and the Canadian way of life.

"We should welcome new ideas," Mr. Massey said, "but they should come to us through a selective process, not an automatic one."

"We should go out and find
the ideas that we ought to borrow."

"The United States can be useful to us but in certain fields—
I think I am right in naming education as one—we have too often adopted practices just at the moment they have become discredited across the border.
That was because we did not search well enough."

BRITAIN CAN HELP

In postwar Britain, bold experiments in nearly all spheres
of life can be studied with profit,
Mr. Massey said. Some are not applicable to the Canadian way
of life but from many of them
we can learn much.

"Canada's own painters and authors are assisting in preserving and increasing our nationalism," he told his audience, and pointed out that the outside world
is paying more and more attention to our efforts in these fields.

"This is a challenge to us at home," he said. "We shouldn't leave the appreciation of our achievements to people overseas."

Here Mr. Massey spoke of state art projects in the United States and the Council for the Encouragement of Music and Arts in England.

"I would like to see an active
body in Canada," he challenged,
"which would combine such functions as are performed by the British Council and the Arts Councils of Great Britain; a national organization whose talk

would be to tell the world about Canada and the Canadian way of life, because we have a contribution to make ourselves."

"The work of such a body would also help us Canadians to have a deeper comprehension of our own national life. For an effort to explain Canada to the outside world would help us to understand her better ourselves."

"The best way to learn a thing is to teach it."
Mrs. Kenneth Drury, president of the Women's Canadian Club, presided at the meeting and introduced the distinguished speaker who was accompanied by Mrs. Massey, Mrs. H. L. Smith expressed thanks of members to Mr. Massey.

Vocal selections were given by Mrs. C. Paver, accompanied by Mrs. W. B. Milburn.

Beer, Wine Makers May Advertise By Radio In Canada

OTTAWA (CP)—A. Davidson, chairman of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, said Tuesday a recent change in broadcasting regulations would permit beer and wine companies to sponsor radio programs in provinces where laws are changed to permit the advertising of beer and wine.

Mr. Davidson said the change did not remove the Dominion-wide ban on the sponsorship of radio programs by liquor companies as distinguished from beer and wine firms. It did, however, put all provinces on an equal footing with Quebec as far as the sponsorship of radio programs was concerned.

He was commenting on a recent announcement in Edmonton that the Associated Temperance forces of Alberta would protest to Prime Minister King and to the CBC against the ban being lifted on broadcasting of liquor advertisements on Dominion networks.

Before the recent change in the regulations, only beer and wine companies in Quebec province were allowed to sponsor radio programs, said Mr. Davidson. The sponsorship was allowed by the CBC because the advertising of liquor, beer and wine was permissible under Quebec law.

In future in any province which decides to permit similar advertising the CBC will allow the sponsoring of radio programs by beer and wine companies.

The change in regulations does not alter the strict limitations on beer and wine companies sponsoring programs. During a program, as is the case now in Quebec, it is permissible to mention only that the program is sponsored by the such-and-such brewing company or wine company. Any advertising of beer and wine products is prohibited.

Mr. Davidson said repeal of the Transitional Emergency Powers Act would not mean there would be a greater relaxation of radio advertising regulations. While repeal of the act would mean the return of certain powers to the provinces, radio came under federal jurisdiction and radio advertising would continue to be controlled by the CBC.

Wet Street Driving Risks Pointed Out

Tricks of driving to overcome the dangers of wet streets prevalent during the winter months were explained today by Chief Constable J. A. McLellan of the city police.

"It is the mind behind the wheel that needs to be safe," Chief McLellan first pointed out. "Bear in mind that an automobile is not foolproof and that mechanical safeguards cannot be relied upon to take the place of ordinary common-sense."

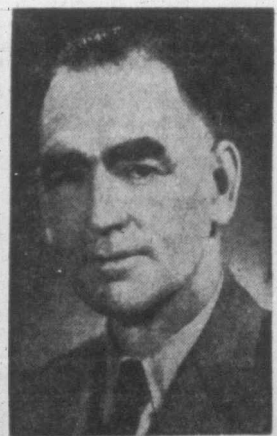

He warned not to make quick wheel movements on wet roads and to apply brakes gradually rather than slam them on. Other things he cautioned against were too much haste and autumn leaves which, when wet, form a slippery cushion under the wheels, rendering brakes useless.

Reclaim Timber Lands

REGINA (CP)—Reversion to the crown of "almost all" timber berths in Saskatchewan on completion of negotiations to reclaim 160,000 acres of timber berth land in the province was announced Tuesday by Resources Minister J. L. Phelps.

Mr. Phelps said negotiations with private operators involving some 60,000,000 board feet of spruce were "virtually" complete.

Hart Indicates Prairie Tax Plans May Not Suit B.C.

Premier John Hart, who expects to leave within 10 days for Ottawa to discuss with Dominion government officials a tax plan to replace the wartime tax agreements, indicated today British Columbia may find the proposals, accepted by the prairie provinces, unacceptable to British Columbia.

"British Columbia's position has not changed; it is exactly the same as when the previous conference broke up," said Mr. Hart. "Since then, however, Mr. Hsley, in his budget address, advanced other proposals which have not been discussed, and we are going down to discuss the new ones."

Mr. Hart said, however, that because of different conditions in British Columbia than on the prairies, whereby it is possible for B.C. to make a large contribution to the Dominion treasury, the Dominion proposals may not be acceptable to B.C.

If the Dominion and British Columbia governments are unable to work out a plan, the province may return to the income and corporation tax field, levying its own taxes.

Saskatchewan Plans 5% Corporation Tax Under New Pact

REGINA (CP)—A 5 per cent corporation tax which, however, would not add to the over-all burden of corporate taxpayers, will be among provincial legislation resulting from the new fiscal agreement between Saskatchewan and the federal government, Provincial Treasurer C. M. Fines said Tuesday.

The new tax would be collected for the province by the Dominion, Mr. Fines said. Reduction of a similar wartime federal tax from 40 to 30 per cent by the Dominion would leave the total levy at 35 per cent, he said.

The province will discontinue the 5 per cent tax when all provinces had made a tax agreement with the Dominion.

Liquidation of approximately $44,000,000 of Saskatchewan's $80,000,000 treasury bill debt to the federal government as part of the new Dominion-provincial tax agreement was also announced by Mr. Fines.

Mr. Fines said the province would give up for five years fields of income and corporation taxes and succession duties in return for a $15 per capita annual subsidy at a minimum of $13,439,000.

He stated settlement of the treasury bills debt and the question of payment of the province for alienation of Saskatchewan's natural resources by the Dominion from 1905 to 1930—"Two of Saskatchewan's oldest and most contentious problems—would be brought up at the next session of the Commons, for ratification."

The $80,000,000 provincial debt was made up of $61,300,000 in treasury bills owed the Dominion government for advances given for relief during the 1930s; $5,700,000 interest on the relief loans; and $13,400,000 representing loans advanced to enable the province to meet its debt maturities in 1931 and for "ordinary government purposes."

France Dusts Off Elysee Palace But No One Knows Who Will Be First Occupant

By ROSETTE HARGROVE

PARIS — France is about to sweep six years of cobwebs and decay from her White House—the Palace of the Elysee—but nobody knows yet who the first postwar tenant will be.

Until that question is answered, Monsieur Desmarests, Inspector General of France's national palaces and the man in charge of the clean-up and decorating program, can't complete plans for the private apartments in the palace (it will make a big difference whether the new president is married or single).

But Desmarests claims he can't do very much to the palace, anyway, with what he has to spend. A budget of $50,000 was given him in June, 1945, and upped another $25,000 since then. At the same time, he says, costs have risen 75 per cent, and the budget will only take care of urgent repairs and supplies.

Moth holes or not, the new president will have to be content with a cleaning and repair job on the tapestries, carpets and draperies. The French White House has 500 windows, and the $12,000 bill for new curtains and sun blinds won't leave anything over for frills.

And where, Desmarests wants to know, is he going to get the 80-foot-long fine linen table cloths for the great banquet tables in the palace?

Thus far, he has been successful in having a couple of new bathrooms installed in the palace, which was built in 1718 at a cost of nearly four million dollars. Another two million went for redecorations to the taste of Madame Pompadour when Louis XV bought the Elysee for her. It became the official residence of the presidents in 1845.

Since June, 1940, when President Lebrun left the palace to go to Bordeaux, the only official resident has been the janitor, who went to work there in 1912 and refused to leave when the Germans came to Paris.

and N. warehouse, and skidded another 58 feet. Robt. Ross was fined $40 or six days in city police court Tuesday, and had his license suspended for one month.

except for a few "maquisards" who were hidden in the servants' quarters from time to time.

The staffing of the palace is a big problem as refurbishing it. The prewar domestic staff consisted of 12 men servants and 10 maids. New working-hour schedules for this type of employee have increased the staff to 18, but the big job is to find servants trained in the finer nuances of protocol in handling distinguished guests.

Board Promises More Shortening

OTTAWA (CP)—For November, December and January, retailers have been promised 100 per cent of the shortening they sold during the corresponding period in 1941. Bakers and other industrial users will receive 90 per cent of what they used in that period.

With the approach of the holiday season, the board decided it was time to give Canadian housewives "a little Christmas present," said F. H. Leberg, oils and fats administrator for the War-time Prices and Trade Board.

A shipment of vegetable oil from Argentina, which reached this country a couple of weeks ago, has made possible an increase in the Canadian shortening supply.

The oil already has been distributed to Canada's five shortening manufacturing companies, said Mr. Leberg, adding it had been held up a month in New York as a result of the longshoremen's strike.

Previously, consumers were allotted only 70 per cent of the amount they used during the corresponding period in 1941, while industrialists were given 90 per cent.

House Building Costs Skyrocketing

OTTAWA (CP)—For the home-builder with a slim bankroll and his eye on a mortgage for a post-war home, the dominant theme of a report issued Tuesday by the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation is this: The cost of building an individual home jumped 37 per cent between 1939 and 1945 and is still heading skyward.

This prospect is outlined in the first issue of Housing in Canada, a new quarterly published by the corporation.

One consolation is given the prospective home-builder. Present material prices have not hit the inflationary speed of the period following the First Great War, and are still 7 per cent below the 1920 level.

Construction costs generally have leaped ahead quicker than those for single homes. General building costs, says the publication, were up between 47 and 62 per cent between 1939 and 1945 and the end was not yet in sight.

Up to the end of last September, 21,847 new units had been completed in 364 municipalities. For the whole of last year in the same municipalities, the total was 26,197.

By PETE SALLAWAY

FINAL PAYOFF for Victoria Mustangs came yesterday when the local club was ordered to play its Big Four Canadian football semifinal against Vancouver Meralomas here Saturday night. After Meralomas had defaulted the game by failing to put in an appearance here last week-end the league executive turned around and gave them another chance to play the engagement. Mustangs have taken a beating from the league executive all season and the decision is no major surprise.

SHOULD Mustangs win over Meralomas they will be called on to travel to Vancouver to battle V.A.C. in the provincial final. That would give the Victoria club a chance to step in and stand on its feet. Victoria are the present champions and holders of the Lipton Cup so why shouldn't the final be played here? If Vancouver wants to win it let them come over here and turn the trick. If Mustangs, should they reach the last round, decide to stand pat on a decision to play at home, or else, I feel confident Vancouver would come to terms. They want that championship too badly.

VICTORIA baseball followers are going to get plenty of the professional variety to look over next summer with the Athletics scheduled to play 77 games at Athletic Park. The Western International League directors finally smartened up and will have a professional schedule maker draw up next season's games. Another disjointed schedule similar to last season would be too much to take. In 1947 the clubs will all play a like number of games and every club will appear here the same number of times, 11. It is likely Victorians will have games six straight nights but the weeks will be split with two different teams appearing. On the occasions during the season a visiting club will play four games and on the third visit three engagements. The Athletics will also be away only one week at the most. The new arrangement is going to boost the traveling ex-

Leafs Really Rugged

TORONTO (CP)—Toronto newspaper photographer Nat Turofsky agreed with National Hockey League teams—the Maple Leafs are tough and hard-hitting. Nat has a gashed chin and a mouth full of loose teeth—four of which he will lose—to prove his point.

Laden down with camera and attendant paraphernalia—which also need repairs—Nat was trying to get a shot of Ted (Teeter) Kennedy at Maple Leaf Gardens Tuesday. Kennedy was skating toward the cameraman but apparently slipped as he came to a stop in front of the camera. Kennedy remained standing; Turofsky was flatter than a you-know-what and Leaf trainer Tim Daly did an 11-stitch sewing job. The picture? Turofsky will have to shoot another.

penses and keep the clubs on the move a lot more than last season. For instance, if the Athletics are playing in Yakima or Salem on a Sunday they will have to jump all the way back here to open up on a Monday night. Of course, the teams are talking about flying so that will speed up their movements.

SPEAKING of baseball Tommy Burgess who acted as trainer of the Athletics last summer, is in receipt of a letter from Bob (Swede) Jensen, popular pitcher on the Victoria club. Jensen is living at Henlo Park, California, where he is working during the week and playing ball on Sundays in a winter league. He is a member of the Bays Meadows race track club along with Beans Marionetti, another Athletic. Jensen writes that Vic Buccola, Pete Hughes and Bill Barisoff are members of the Los Angeles club. Burgess also received a world series program from Eddie Murphy, Victoria outfielder who is spending the winter months at East Milton, Mass.

FOLLOWING that vicious scoreless tie last Saturday the U.S. football experts are going to have a tough time whether Army or Notre Dame is the best team of the year. Of course, the "experts" may give the nod to Army on the old sports theory that a champ is a champ until he's beaten. What a thrill if one of the bowl promoters could get these two clubs together for another battle come New Year's Day. That would be a real prize promotion.

Paid Athlete Storm Centre For 1948 Edition Of Olympic Games

LONDON (CP)—The question of "broken-time" payment to athletes competing in international events, hotly debated by the Oslo meeting of the International Amateur Athletic Federation in September, remains a touchy subject. It couldn't be classified in the polite-conversation class.

"This is not the time, nor the place, to discuss this," said E. J. Holt, honorary secretary of the I.A.A.F., when the issue was raised by a Canadian Press reporter during an interview.

"The question has its pros and cons. A special commission has been set up to investigate the matter and its report will be discussed at the next congress of the I.A.A.F. in London, during the 1948 Olympic Games."

Britain and the United States came out strongly against broken-time payment at the Oslo session and a first class brawl ensued.

The subject was unpopular, but a tongue-in-cheek comment that Britain probably will lose many events in the Olympics if payments aren't made to working athletes who might otherwise be forced to ration their training, drew this rejoinder: "What are results? The world attaches too much importance to them. So much stress is put on results that the sport is forgotten." Holt, also honorary secretary of the British Amateur Athletic Association, said he doesn't know anything about Russian payments to outstanding athletes.

WOULD BE PROS

"There is a lot of talk," he said. "Russia is not a member of the I.A.A.F. But, if she gives them money, her athletes are, in my view, professionals."

And if the Soviet is to compete in the 1948 games she must abide by the rules laid down by the I.A.A.F., he said.

He has a word for countries, organizations or individuals who pay an amateur for participating in sports events.

"They are doing that athlete a great disservice. They are supporting him in the outlook that sport is the most important thing in life. It is a matter of principle and respect. During that athlete's activities he may be a hero today, but forgotten tomorrow."

If an athlete accepts money for his sports activities, he is a professional, "and that cannot be disputed; there is absolutely no question on that score."

Seattle College Coming Saturday To Meet Dominoes

Joe Budnick, coach of the Seattle College basketball team will bring over a tall young team to do battle with the Victoria Dominoes Saturday at the Victoria High School in the second of the intercity hoop tilts of the season.

The local aces checked in with a 55 to 51 win over the Matheny-Bacon quintette last Saturday and will be out to make it two straight at the expense of the young collegians.

Twelve players are slated to make the trip, and with an average age of 20 years and height of six foot one, should be able to provide the locals with all the basketball they will be able to handle during the evening.

Majority of the team are ex-servicemen who are back attending college after various stints in the armed forces.

Personnel of the Seattle club follows:

Norm Willis, 20, six foot, 170 pounds. Guard, played for team in 1944 and leading scorer until called into service.

Earl Spangler, 18, six foot three inches, 185 pounds, Centre, made all-state in 1946 and two year letterman at Seattle Prep.

Jesse Douglas, 19, six foot three inches, 190 pounds. Forward, three year letterman in both basketball and football at Queen Anne.

Jack Pinton, 20, six foot, 153 pounds. Guard, freshman, played service ball for U.S. Pasig.

Ned McIver, 20, six foot, 150 pounds. Guard, played two years for Naval Receiving Station at San Pedro.

Tom Flynn, 20, six foot two inches, 160 pounds. Forward, played navy ball.

Terry Sullivan, 21, six foot two inches, 175 pounds. Forward, three year letterman at Seattle Prep. Was in navy for three years.

Bill McNeill, 19, six foot two inches, 170 pounds. Centre, played for Hoquiam in 1944, spent two years in navy.

Nels Sundrom, 24, six foot three inches, 200 pounds. Guard, played army basketball for Schofield Redlanders team of Hawaii.

Dave Blakely, 22, six foot four inches, 192 pounds. Centre, played commercial ball for S.S. Savidge, Napier and Scott and Boeings.

Bill Sands, 20, five foot 11 inches, 170 pounds. Forward, all-city, 1933-44, veteran of army air forces.

The winner of this game will meet the Vancouver Athletic Club in the final game of the Lipton Cup series the following week.

Mustangs-Meralomas Grid Game On Again

Victoria Mustangs are hopping mad once again over the latest decision of the Big Four officials from their lofty perch in the citadel of league headquarters, Vancouver, calling for the semifinal of the Lipton Cup series between Vancouver Meralomas and Mustangs at Athletic Park on Saturday night. The game will be played under the arcs at 7.30.

Forced to cancel last Saturday's match when fog grounded the Meralomas' chartered plane in Vancouver, Mustang officials made every effort to have the contest played here either on Monday or Wednesday night, but were told that the visitors would be unable to field a team.

Wally Smith, manager of the locals, made a flying trip to the mainland yesterday to attend the conference of the big four, and despite the fact that it had been mutually decided between the two clubs that Meralomas would default the game when they were unable to comply with the efforts of the local moguls to stage the game, the Vancouver committee members decided that the Meralomas-Mustangs playoff would be rescheduled.

MUSTANGS READY

Coach Jimmy Smith has been putting his charges through light scrimmages and has them polishing up on their aerial attack in workouts this week, and if rumours are any axiom, the Mustangs-Meralomas duel will be one of the hardest fought games of the season. Players and officials of the local club are a little displeased at various decisions handed down by the executive this year, and will be out to prove to Victoria football followers that the Mustangs have settled all of their internal differences and will be out to hand the visiting gridders a defeat.

Tom McKeachie has been calling signals in practice sessions, and big Bert Nelson has been pulled out of the line and placed in the fullback spot. Injured members of the club who missed the last two league games are recovered from their injuries and their presence will bring the locals back to the early season strength.

The winner of this game will meet the Vancouver Athletic Club in the final game of the Lipton Cup series the following week.

Victoria High Blacks Win Interhigh Basketball Title

Play in the senior boys' division of the Interhigh Basketball League continued yesterday with two games. At Memorial Hall, Victoria High's Blacks scored their fifth win in as many starts at the expense of Esquimalt, 43 to 30, to win the league title. However, the city lads had to battle all the way. Pete Leung, Bhagat Singh and Elmer Matthews led the winners with 10 points each while Jones was high man for Esquimalt with 18 points. Blacks led 28 to 14 at the half.

Playing on their home floor, Victoria High's Blacks trounced Oak Bay 49 to 27 in a contest that was never in doubt. Paced by Ron Castner with 12 points, Golds had piled up a 20 to 0 lead at the quarter and went on to lead 30 to 0 before Johnny Field finally broke the goose egg on a free shot. Golds were ahead 34 to 6 at the half.

Both teams notched 15 points in the last half and Johnny Field potted some nice baskets for the Bays, scoring nine points in this half.

CASTNER STARS

Too much Castner was the downfall for the Oak Bay squad as the hustling centre piled up 24 points and scored almost at will. There were 22 personals called during the game with Golds being nicked for 13.

A third game between Mount View and Mount Douglas was canceled.

Teams and scores follow:
Esquimalt-Jones 18, Wright 5, Praddy, Douglas 3, O. Burton 2, D. Burton, McConnachy 2.
Bryant, McDonald.
Blacks-Leung 10, Minnes 4, Oakley 1, Poskitt 4, Stinson 4, Singh 10, Matthews 10, Ross.
Golds-Castner 24, Anderson 10, Allen 2, Corry 2, Bentley 11, Davidson, Forsythe.
Oak Bay-Wright 3, Field 12, Moore 2, Young 4, Norman, Mill.

Dominoes Lose George Straith

Victoria Dominoes were further weakened today with the scheduled departure of George Straith for California.

George, who was expected to play an important part in the Domino basketball machine this year, plans an extended holiday in the south and his services will probably be lost to the club for the next few months.

Weakened Dominoes Engage Vets In Basketball Tilt

Tillicum intermediate B boys whipped Brentwood Aces 38 to 26 and K.V. juniors thrashed the Canadian Legion 24 to 14 in hoop tilts at the Central Junior high school last night.

Jack Saywell, a newcomer to the quintette racked up 19 points to lead his teammates to their 12 point win over the suburbanites, who tired rather badly in the second half, having only five players in uniform.

In taking the measure of the Canadian Legion, K.V.'s juniors were never in serious trouble and won in easy fashion. Firth was high man for the winners with eight.

Games tonight at the Victoria High School will see the Dominoes-Dominoes tackling the Army and Navy Vets in the senior A feature at 9. Art Chapman, Andrews and Peden are in Vancouver at present, trying out for the Vancouver pro quintette. On the other hand, Reg Clarkson, playing coach of the veterans is not expected to be in uniform for his team as he too is in the mainland city.

Victoria College cagers will clash with Mooney's in a senior C division match at 8, which game will be preceded by a girls game at 7 between Hudson's Bay B and Eagletes.

Teams and scores:
K.V.'s-Caltion 6, Rowe, McIntosh 2, Stewart 4, Firth 8, Hudson 2, Robb 2.

Legion-Gallop, Day, Geisser 8, Green, Mar 4, Parker 2, Ritchie, Bamford, Pynn.

Tillicums—Anderson 6, Saywell 19, Robinson, Ireland 2, Matthews 9, Davison, Leonard 2, Clancy.

Brentwood Aces—Benn 10, Turner, Ladlow, Bailey 11, Cruickshanks 5.

Ken Lindsay Kayoed By Filipino Battler

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP)—Speedy Cabanella, hard-punching Filipino from Manila, knocked out Kenny Lindsay of Vancouver, B.C., in one minute 49 seconds of the second round of their scheduled 10-round fight last night.

Cabanella, 124, felled Lindsay, 123, twice in the first round. A left to the body sent him down for nine and a left to the jaw dropped him for eight.

The Filipino took a few light taps at the start of the second round and then rushed in with a fast left hook to Lindsay's body that pulled his guard down. A left hook to the jaw finished him off.

Dave Picazo, 140, Oakland, Calif., knocked out Harry Smith, 134, Vancouver, in the second round of a scheduled six-round preliminary.

Millman's Goal In Overtime Wins For Vancouver 6-5

Hollywood Wolves racked up their 11th Pacific Coast Hockey League victory in 12 starts in Oakland last night when they defeated Oakland Oaks 5 to 0.

Wolves' goalie Baz Bastien proved unbeatable in the nets handling 30 Oakland tries without a miss. Hollywood scores were registered by Blink Bellinger, Doc Prentice, Larry Archambault, Harold Brashaw and Bill Barliko.

In Vancouver, defenceman Chuck Millman's overtime goal gave the Vancouver Canucks a 6 to 5 victory over the New Westminster Royals. The win for the Canucks strengthened their hold on third place in the northern division of the Pacific Coast Hockey League.

The Seattle Ironmen, top team in the northern division, got a better grip on their first place position by trouncing the cellar-occupying Tacoma Rockets 9 to 5. It was the fourth straight loss for the Tacoma team.

Goal scoring honors for Seattle went to Bill Robinson, Bob Balance and Al Rittinger, who each scored two goals apiece. Joe Medynski of Tacoma also notched two markers.

In Fresno, San Diego Skyhawks turned back the Fresno Falcons 6 to 3 to win their third straight Pacific Coast League game. Skyhawk wingers Duffy and d'Amore were the high point-gatherers of the night with two goals and an assist each.

Al Hostak Scores First-Round Kayo

SEATTLE (AP)—Al Hostak, Seattle, former middleweight champion, knocked out Sam Hughes, Detroit negro, in 1.45 of the first round of a main event boxing match here Tuesday night. The knockout came after Hostak had knocked Hughes down for a nine-count and an eight-count. Hostak weighed 164½; Hughes 170.

Preliminary results included: Skinny Roberts 141, Bremerton, outpointed Hal Robbins 140, Vancouver, B.C., in six.

Hoop Schedule

Taylor-Conacher Aces With Detroit Squad

In the flurry of off-season trading that saw Detroit Red Wings start this National Hockey League season with a revamped line-up, manager Jack Adams could take bows today for at least two deals—those that brought centre Billy Taylor and left-winger Roy Conacher to the Wings. Together this pair added up to 25 scoring points in Detroit's first 10 games, which means Wings could have been in a lot sadder plight than their present fourth position without them.

Oddly enough, Toronto Maple Leafs have expressed themselves well pleased with the deal that sent Taylor to Detroit for big Harry Watson. There have been no complaints from Boston Bruins about Joe Carveth, the right-winger for whom they parted with Conacher.

In each case, Adams gave up younger players for two veterans he needed to balance an inexperienced team, which may partly explain why, as in all good horse-trading, all sides went away happy.

The 23-year-old Watson, on the injured list at present, is four years younger than Taylor. At 28, Carveth has two years on Conacher but Boston's main interest in this deal probably was in gaining a right-winger for left-handed Conacher.

BRUINS AFTER TIE

Fans in Boston will get a chance to pass judgment on the Carveth-Conacher exchange to night when both take the ice in one of two N.H.L. contests. Bruins will be shooting for a victory that would tie them for the top with the idle Toronto Maple Leafs.

In the other contest, the third-place Montreal Canadiens are at New York against Rangers, tied for last place with Chicago Black Hawks.

Red Wings, while five points off Toronto's leading pace, have outscored each of the other five clubs with a total of 32 goals.

Offsetting Detroit's prolific goal-getting, however, is the fact that they have also shown up as the weakest defensive club—with 40 goals scored against them.

Lloyd Mangrum Wins Title In Playoff

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Lloyd Mangrum, United States open champion from Chicago, Tuesday defeated Victor Ghezzi, Knoxville, Tenn., in a play-off to win the Argentine open golf tournament.

Mangrum won his U.S. title by defeating Ghezzi and Byron Nelson in a play-off at the Cleveland, O., tournament last summer.

MACDONALD WNS

NEW YORK (AP)—Billy Macdonald, 149, Vancouver, B.C., outpointed Jimmy Cartelli, 154, Brooklyn, in a four-round boxing bout last night.

Old Max Schmeling Can Fight Again

BERLIN (AP)—The British military government has granted Max Schmeling, former world heavyweight boxing champion, a license to resume his activity in the ring, the British Press Service reported from Hamburg.

The 41-year-old fighter previously had been black-listed for his work for the Nazis and subsequently was punished for violation of rules prohibiting private boxing.

Those Not Claiming Family Allowances Stand To Lose

Persons with children under 16 years of age who do not claim family allowances next year will lose somewhere between $60 and $96 when they come to pay their income taxes as a result of the new tax regulations which come into effect at the first of the year, W. R. Bone, regional director of the Family Allowances Branch, Department of National Health and Welfare, warned today.

"As of Dec. 31 of this year no tax advantage could be gained by any person with income over $3,000 a year claiming family allowance," Mr. Bone explained. "However, after Jan. 1, income tax exemption will be a flat $100 per child under 16 years so it will be to anyone's advantage to apply."

Those seeking family allowance should apply as soon as possible before the end of the year. By doing so they will speed the receipt of their family allowance cheque.

"Persons who do not desire to draw family allowance until the new regulations come into effect at the first of the year may claim now but state on the forms that they do not wish payment made until next year," Mr. Bone said. Family allowance registration forms are available at any post office, it was pointed out.

Councillor Read To Run For Reeve

At a meeting of the Esquimalt council last night, Councillor E. J. Read announced his candidature as reeve for the municipal elections on Dec. 14, after Reeve Thomas Hadfield said he would not seek re-election.

Stating that he regretted that Reeve Hadfield was not seeking re-election, Councillor Read said that if elected he intended to carry on with the policies followed by the present council "in so far as the future is concerned." Councillor Read has been a resident of Esquimalt for 36 years. He is retired and has served one year on the council.

In announcing his intentions of withdrawing from the council, Reeve Hadfield expressed regret that Greater Victoria amalgamation seemed no closer.

Mr. Hadfield has held the position of reeve for three years and has had 15 consecutive years on the council. He was a member of the Greater Victoria Transportation Board and helped prepare specifications for tenders for the new system. He is also acting as president of the new Esquimalt Chamber of Commerce and is a member of the city library board. It was also announced at the meeting that the returning officers for the municipal elections would be W. J. Cave and A. E. Cave.

Brings Jail Term

I look upon this as a very serious case, Magistrate Henry C. Hall commented in police court today as he sentenced George Paton to two months at hard labor and Charles Brown to three months with hard labor on charges of assault.

Both men were found guilty, at the conclusion of their trial yesterday, assaulting Herbert McLennan, Station Hotel. McLennan had testified he received two black eyes and lacerations of the face in a fight with the two accused in the Victoria Cafe Oct. 25.

Doctors On Witness Stand At Manslaughter Hearing

Preliminary hearing in city police court of the manslaughter charge against Dr. Charles Duck was adjourned today until Friday. Magistrate Henry C. Hall refused to grant a defence application for dismissal of the charge until he had heard the defence witnesses.

Patrick J. Sinnott, defence counsel, applied for dismissal of the charges after the prosecution completed its case with the calling of six doctors and one nurse as witnesses.

Dr. Donald Whitley testified that he had been intern at the Jubilee Hospital when the child, Armand Barera had been brought into hospital in the early hours of the morning late last December. He said that the child was "terribly sick" and he immediately notified Dr. Duck that he had been admitted to hospital. Within an hour, Dr. Whitley testified, he had, on Dr. Duck's recommendation, administered antitoxin. He said he saw the child at repeated intervals during the night and was not unduly alarmed about his condition when he went off duty because there seemed fair response to oxygen, penicillin and antitoxin.

AGREED WITH TREATMENT

Dr. J. A. Stewart, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, said that he had examined Armand that same night at the request of Dr. Duck. He said that there was no doubt the boy was suffering from diphtheria, that he had difficulty breathing and there was a definite membrane in the throat. He said he agreed with the treatment ordered by Dr. Duck in the case.

Dr. A. N. Reid, who said he knew nothing of the Barera case, told the court that it was the general practice for the medical profession to prescribe over the telephone for patients suffering from mild maladies. He also described in some detail the symptoms of diphtheria and the usual treatment for the disease. In answer to a question from Prosecutor Claude Harrison he said he would not give a telephone prescription if he suspected there was any possibility of diphtheria. Dr. J. S. McCallum, who had

B.C. Mines May Double Output If Given Fair Chance—MacDonald

Mines Minister R. C. MacDonald, opening the 28th annual western meeting of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy today in Vancouver, said that, if given a fair chance, the prospects were that average yearly output of mines of British Columbia may be doubled.

He said he expressed this belief by judging the increased interest at the present time in the province's mining industry valued in 1945 at $63,344,000. Last year, he said, $22,621,000 in wages and salaries were paid out to 11,820 employed in the industry.

The mining industry from 1852 to 1945 had contributed $2,097,464,644 in new wealth, he said. Mr. MacDonald warned, however, the gravest problem facing the mining industry was "unrest in the ranks of organized labor."

"That is very much so in this province, at least in so far as the

Ladies' Night Held By Burns Club

Ladies' night was observed by the Burns Club of Victoria Tuesday evening in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium, with Mrs. N. D. Christie and Mrs. A. McKay as joint conveners.

An enthusiastic audience greeted the Philomels, Y.W.C.A. girls' choir under direction of Mrs. W. H. Wilson and Mrs. C. Conyers. They were heard in folk songs, a negro spiritual and Scottish numbers, all of which were beautifully rendered.

Other artists taking part were Miss Mamie MacAllister, piper; Mrs. Duncan MacBride, who read a poem; Miss Nellie Scowcroft, cussionist; Mrs. F. Thomas, whistler. Miss Agnes-Robertson, highland dancing, and Miss Kathleen Knox, violinist.

Dr. W. R. Gunn was chairman and Mr. Duncan MacBride expressed the appreciation of the audience to the entertainers.

Medical Experts Testify At Trial Of Indian Woman

The body of Rosan James was covered with multiple bruises, lacerations and wounds, Dr. John H. Moore, physician, testified today at the trial of Ethel James, Esquimalt Indian charged with the murder of her five-year-old niece on June 13.

Dr. Moore said when he examined the body June 16, he discovered the legs, fingers and hands badly wounded, as well as internal injuries.

Dr. T. W. Davis, chemist for the Provincial Department of Mines, told the court that chemical tests on eight pieces of wood gave a positive reaction, indicating the "possible presence of blood." The wood was turned over to Dr. D. R. Roxburgh, pathologist at St. Joseph's Hospital, for further identification, he said.

The witness also said that he examined a small red table and stove, but was unable to find any traces of blood.

Crown Prosecutor R. A. Wooten asked the witness if he had discovered blood on a shoe which was found in the two-room cabin on Viewfield Road.

"There was a smear around the shoe," said Dr. Moore, "but tests revealed that it was not blood."

Defence counsel H. W. Davey, K.C., asked the witness if heat would not decompose blood beyond recognition.

To this Dr. Davis replied that heat did decompose blood so that at times it was unrecognizable.

Under cross-examination, Chief Constable Gilbert Stancombe of Esquimalt, testified that he found no instrument around the premises that could have been used as a weapon with the exception of a shoe. The chief also said that the accused had given him two statements explaining the reasons for the multiple bruises. He said the accused told him first that the girl suffered from boils which covered head, hands and legs.

Albert Dawson, 87, Here 34 Years, Dies

Albert Dawson, 87, one of the pioneer businessmen of Winnipeg, Port Arthur and Fort William and for the last 34 years a resident of Victoria, passed away Tuesday in St. Joseph's Hospital after a lengthy illness.

After a period in Fort William he spent several years fruit farming in the Okanagan Valley. He came to Victoria in 1912, and until his retirement 15 years ago did special mechanical work.

Mr. Dawson had been residing at 10 Douglas Street. He is survived by his widow, two sons, Harry B. Victoria, and C. Wilbur, Duncan, and two daughters, Mrs. Leslie G. Macdonald, Kenora, Ont., and Mrs. Arthur B. Christopher, Vancouver.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 3 at Sands.

Alan Ladd has the best role of his career in Paramount's adventure-thriller, "O.S.S." which is now at the Capitol Theatre, with Geraldine Fitzgerald his co-star. Ladd will be seen as an operator in the government's intelligence agency, the Office of Strategic Services. He and Miss Fitzgerald, together with two other operators who comprise the team known as "Applejack," are parachuted into Nazi-occupied France with instructions to blow up an importantly placed bridge in preparation for the D-Day landing.

DOMINION THEATRE

George Bancroft, one of the biggest and brawniest men in pictures today, who appears in Columbia's "Texas," at the Dominion Theatre, was so puny in his youth that he exercised race horses and aspired to becoming a jockey. William Holden, Claire Trevor and Glenn Ford are starred in the historical action drama.

ROYAL THEATRE

"Meet The Navy," motion picture story of the Royal Canadian Navy's tour of Canada, Britain and the Continent, is the featured attraction at the Royal Theatre.

All members of the big cast were officers, ratings and Wrens in the Royal Canadian Navy. All lived under strict naval discipline just the same as any other officers and ratings in the navy and though "Meet The Navy" as a stage s.h.w. grossed nearly $1,000,000, all players in the cast received only their navy pay.

"Meet The Navy" on the screen, is a gay broadside of comedy, music and spectacle—the same great show that entertained service

one of the leading stars in the Gilbert and Sullivan productions showing at the York Theatre tonight.

OAK BAY, PLAZA THEATRES

In Andrew's latest picture, Universal's technicolor release, "Canyon Passage," currently at the Oak Bay and Plaza Theatres, there is a scene of a group of settlers singing around a campfire. If you listen closely you may be able to distinguish Dana's robust baritone from among the others. That will be the first, and probably the only, time that Dana Andrews will sing for a cinema audience.

RIO THEATRE

All the glitter of their glamor, all their loves and their laughter, all the daring of the fabulous sisters who set a world aflame with their songs and broke a million hearts comes to the screen when "The Dolly Sisters," 20th Century-Fox's spectacular Technicolor musical starring Betty Grable, John Payne and June Haver, currently at the Rio Theatre.

ATLAS THEATRE

As gay and sparkling as the bottle of champagne that plays so important a part in its story, Paramount's comedy-romance, "The Well Groomed Bride," opened with a loud pop (of laughter) at the Atlas Theatre last night. Ray Milland, Academy Award winner for his dramatic performance in "The Lost Weekend," does a right-about-face to high comedy in this hilarious film which co-stars him Olivia DeHavilland and Sonny Tufts.

MOUNTAIN MAGNIFIER

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
HOLLYWOOD (NEA)—We thought we had glorified all the odd jobs in Hollywood—those of the cobweb-maker, the daisy-duster, the wave-maker, the cloud-painter and all the rest.

Then we met Buster Resmondo, a four-foot, 70-pound midget, who has the darndest job of all.

Buster is a professional perspective-distortionist. Sounds pretty tricky, doesn't it? Well, it is. And sometimes Buster collects as high as $150 a day for helping make the camera lie.

We found Buster standing in front of a 30-foot-high "mountain" on the set of "The Other Love" at Enterprise Studio. Barbara Stanwyck, David Niven and Bob Stack were playing a scene on the front porch of a Swiss hotel, with the Alps—and Buster—in the background.

HE HEIGHTENS EFFECT

We peeked through the camera—and the illusion was startling. Barbara, David and Bob were all normal-sized in the foreground. In the background, only 30 feet from the camera, Buster looked normal-sized too, adding a couple of miles in depth to a set only about 100 feet wide.

And with Buster between the foreground and the 30-foot-high mountain, the mountain leaped to an altitude which the set designer said would look like 10,000 feet on the screen. Buster was getting a big kick out of it all.

"I'm the little man," he said,

Grain

WINNIPEG (CP)—Losses up to six cents a bushel were recorded in the early rye futures trade today. The declines were attributed to considerable selling in July rye, mostly for United States accounts.

The last part of the session saw the market firm, however, and the prices at close were 1/2 to 4% lower.

The United Kingdom purchased 1,300,000 bushels of wheat. Additional consignments included 320,000 to France, 300,000 to Norway and 150,000 to Belgium.
